

Medical Assistance Program

We want to help you in obtaining the best pregnancy health care services. Because you are now receiving Medicaid for Pregnant Women, we want you to be aware that finding a Maternity Care Coordination Program near you is just a phone call away.

The Maternity Care Coordination Program is staffed by nurses, social workers and paraprofessionals who help pregnant women and new mothers work with concerns they have about their pregnancies and having a healthy baby.

The Maternity Care Coordination Program can provide:

- ♥ Referrals to community resources and agencies for housing, school, transportation, and child care, etc.
- ♥ Referrals to community agencies that provide information on pregnancy and newborn care.
- ♥ Resources to address issues that may cause you to feel stressed or worried.

No matter where you receive your prenatal care, you can sign up for the Maternity Care Coordination Program. Providers are located in every county in North Carolina.

To find the nearest Maternity Care Coordination provider, call one of the toll-free numbers listed below:
