Waiver Amendment and Clinical Coverage Policy
Revision of the Community Alternatives Program for Children 1915(c)
HCBS Waiver

The N.C. Division of Medical Assistance (DMA) submitted the Community Alternatives Program for Children (CAP/C) Home and Community-Based Services (HCBS) waiver amendment to the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) on Dec. 2, 2016. The amendment will accomplish:

1. Continuation of waiver services for children who are determined to be medically-complex, and,
2. Compliance with the requirements for the HCBS Final Rule established by CMS

A summary of the comments from the 30-day public comment period may be accessed on the following web pages on the DMA website:

- <https://dma.ncdhhs.gov/providers/programs-services/long-term-care/community-alternatives-program-for-children>
- <http://dma.ncdhhs.gov/community-alternatives-program-children-capc-1915c-waiver>

A revision will be made to the 3K-1 Clinical Coverage Policy to incorporate the CAP/C waiver amendments.

Case Management agencies are required to communicate this bulletin to CAP/C beneficiaries and other individuals and providers interested in the CAP/C program.
