

Attention: CAP Service Providers, Durable Medical Equipment Providers, Home Health Agencies, and Private Duty Nursing Providers

Based on access to care concerns, the March 1, 2010, date placing a temporary hold on allowing durable medical equipment (DME) providers to seek reimbursement for medically necessary incontinence, ostomy, and urological supplies has been rescinded.