ATTACHMENT IIIA
DOCUMENTATION OF ANNUAL SECURITY TRAINING

SHRED CONTRACTOR

It shall be unlawful for any person to inspect or disclose in any manner not provided by law Federal tax return or return information. Unauthorized inspection is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine not to exceed $1,000, or imprisonment of not more than one year, or both, together with the cost of prosecution. Unauthorized disclosure is a felony punishable by a fine not to exceed $5,000, or imprisonment of not more than 5 years, or both, together with the cost of prosecution. If convicted of unauthorized inspection or disclosure, violators may also be subject to civil damages.

I, ______________________________, state that on this date, I reviewed IRS Codes Sections 7213(a), 7213A, and 7431. These codes have been made available to each of the following employees of the shred company ___________________________________.

Signatures of the following staff attest to reviewing and receiving the above IRS Codes and understand the civil and criminal penalties for unauthorized inspection or disclosure:

_________________________________  __________________________  _________________________
_________________________________  __________________________  _________________________
_________________________________  __________________________  _________________________
_________________________________  __________________________  _________________________
_________________________________  __________________________  _________________________
_________________________________  __________________________  _________________________
_________________________________  __________________________  _________________________
_________________________________  __________________________  _________________________
_________________________________  __________________________  _________________________
_________________________________  __________________________  _________________________
_________________________________  __________________________  _________________________

SIGNATURE OF TRAINER

______________________________________
TITLE

______________________________________
DATE